Music & Art Collaboration Three-Day Camp for Adults

FRIDAY–SUNDAY, JULY 9–JULY 11, 10–3 PM

As adults, we all possess the creative potential to make music and art. This three day intensive is geared to music and art teachers who are interested in exploring deeper levels of collaboration, as well as classroom teachers who would like to bring music and art into their curriculum.

Each day, participants will:

- Gain knowledge and be guided through a series of music, movement and art exercises to encourage their own creative expression.
- Examine specific examples of lessons based on the collaborations between music and art teachers, and explore ways classroom teachers can adapt these lessons for their own use.

We'll have a culminating event at the close of the third day for participants, their families, and the BQCM community to celebrate our music and artwork.

Tuition: $250, plus $25 materials fee. Registration deadline May 15, $25 late registration fee after May 15 (12 person minimum.)
